

smart NETWORKING

Learn to grow your network exponentially

Love it or hate it, effective networking is an important skill. Whether you are looking for a job, for new clients or just want to expand your network, this workshop will teach you the techniques and give you the practice time. This is an interactive workshop where you will participate in “smart networking” to practice proven techniques for effortless networking. You will also get specific action steps to follow afterwards.

The workshop will be facilitated by Liz Lynch, founder of the Center for Networking Excellence. As a top networking strategist and speaker, Liz Lynch has taught thousands of professionals and entrepreneurs how to get 24/7 networking results without the 24/7 effort. She’s the author of Smart Networking: Attract a Following In Person and Online and has appeared in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, CNN, ABC News, CNBC.com, Forbes.com, Businessweek.com, and more.
